PERSONALIA

After three years of yeoman service as Secretary-Treasurer of the Association of Ancient Historians, Professor J.A.S. Evans has taken on a new challenge with his election to the office of President of the Classical Association of Canada at the association's annual meeting in Ottawa on June 4, 1982. We wish him well in his new position.

Effective January 1, 1982 Professor F. E. Romer assumed the post of Book Review Editor for the American Journal of Philology.

Professor K. H. Kinzl served a second term as visiting professor in the Department of History of the Freie Universität Berlin during the summer of 1982 before returning to Peterborough for the 1982/1983 academic year.

Professor Marilyn B. Skinner of Northern Illinois University has received a 1982/1983 Fellowship for College Teachers from the National Endowment for the Humanities. Her project is a book entitled "Lesbia and her Lovers: Political Metaphor in the Love Poetry of Catullus."

Professor Joan Todd of San Jose State University has been appointed Research Fellow at the Albright Institute of Archaeology in Jerusalem for 1983. Under the sponsorship of the American Schools of Oriental Research, Professor Todd will prepare a survey and analysis of archaeological amber in Israel.

Professor Fordyce W. Mitchel will be a research fellow in the School of Historical Studies of the Institute for Advanced Study during 1982/1983. His place at the University of Missouri-Columbia will be filled by Dr. A. S. Bradford

Professor S. Thomas Parker of the Department of History, North Carolina State University, received grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities and Dumbarton Oaks for the second season of the Central Limes Arabicus Project. The 1982 summer season focused on the Roman legionary fortress at el-Lejjūn, Jordan.
